

Snowman Gatherings IV

By: Primitive Gatherings

When We are Together Nothing Else Matters

Snowman Gatherings is back again! This collection features a sweet little snowman couple print in honor of our 25th wedding anniversary! Yup, 25 years is something to celebrate, and being from snowman country, we hope Snowman Gatherings IV warms you right up! This beautiful range of blues and creams will brighten up any wintery day. We have included lots of cozy quilt designs for you to choose from, so while Nick & I are celebrating this year, there will be lots of stitching too! I can't wait to get this snowman panel in my hands and begin passing the slow winter days working with it. What are you going to make first?
